Leave and Attendance Policy

Paid Time Off

Eligible full-time employees receive 15 days of paid time off (PTO) annually.

PTO may be used for vacation, personal appointments, or other approved personal reasons.

Employees should submit planned PTO requests at least two weeks in advance whenever practical.

PTO requests require manager approval and are subject to operational staffing requirements.

Sick Leave

Employees who are unable to work because of illness must notify their manager before their scheduled workday begins whenever possible.

Employees should follow the company's absence reporting procedure when taking sick leave.

Additional documentation may be requested where permitted by applicable policy and law.

Attendance Expectations

Employees are expected to arrive on time and be available during their scheduled working hours.

Repeated unexcused absences or tardiness may result in corrective action.

Employees should notify their manager as early as possible if they expect to arrive late.

Leave of Absence

Employees who need an extended leave of absence should contact Human Resources.

Requests are reviewed according to company policy and applicable legal requirements.

Employees should provide the necessary documentation through the approved HR process.

Holiday Schedule

The company publishes an annual holiday calendar.

Employees should consult the official company calendar for observed holidays and office closures.

Business-critical teams may have separate holiday coverage schedules established by their managers.
